Milkier Pigs & Violet Gold

Philippine food stories

BRYAN KOH

510 pp, 245 x 180 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 11 0216 5, S$88.78

Recipes tell stories. To explore the stories behind recipes is to attempt to understand their provenances. Bryan Koh set out to do just that, and to more fully understand the culinary tapestry of one of the most underrated and least explored cuisines of South East Asia. Originally published in 2014 as Milk Pigs & Violet Gold, this revised and expanded edition is equally lavish with photographs and more recipes from the different regions of the Philippines, including Batanes, Cavite, Pagudpud, South Cotabato, Samar and the predominantly Muslim Zamboanga.

0451 Mornings are for Mont Hin Gar

Burmese food stories

BRYAN KOH

604 pp, 270 x 210 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 0959 34 0, S$88.78

Both a food-centred travelogue and recipe book, 0451 Mornings are for Mont Hin Gar explores regional Burmese cuisine, taking the reader on a journey through Myanmar's vast and varied culinary landscape. The title pays homage to mont hin gar, a fish soup noodle dish that the locals usually have for breakfast. Filling its pages are richly illustrated food stories gleaned through the author's travels all over the country, from Mandalay teashops to Waymo eateries, from Rakhine markets to Bagan and Mawlamyaing home kitchens.

Bekwoh

Stories & recipes from peninsula Malaysia's east coast

BRYAN KOH

256 pp, 255 x 195 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 1162 28 2, S$46.72

From the award-winning author Bryan Koh comes another sumptuous adventure, this time through the east coast of peninsular Malaysia. Researched and written over the span of two years, Bekwoh is a journey, from the fishing villages of Terengganu where keropok lekong is made, to Kota Bharu's famous central market with its giddy selection of kuih (local snacks), from the border town of Tumpat for khao jam to the lemang and rendang shacks in Pahang. Essentially an East Coast term for vast cooking vessels, bekwoh suggests abundance, big-heartedness and merriment, and that is what Bryan serves up, with a collection of over 100 recipes.

DEAN BRETTSCHEIDER

Passion is My Main Ingredient
248 pp, 210 x 140mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 01 3, S$23.50

After a humble childhood in a small Kiwi town, Dean Brettschneider found his calling as a baker in his teenage years. In 2003, on the back of a successful baking career in New Zealand, Dean left for Asia. It was a move which accelerated his development from baker to businessman and led to the founding of his hugely successful bakery chain, Baker & Cook. In this blistering memoir, Dean describes his journey from a small town baker's apprentice to the Global Baker and internationally successful entrepreneur he is today.

Baker & Cook
The story and recipes behind the successful artisan bakery and food store
312 pp, 285 x 235 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4751 56 8, S$65.37

Baker & Cook started out as a single bakery food store in a quiet suburban neighbourhood in Singapore, and within a short span of five years, has expanded to ten outlets across the island. Today, the chain has spread to Manila and will soon be in Saudi Arabia, Abu Dhabi and India. In this book, founder Dean Brettschneider shares the success story in full and candid detail. He also provides expert advice on bread- and pastry-making techniques, and tops it off with more than 60 recipes for breads, cakes and other bakery-related foods. Whether you're a fan, someone looking to understand the business, or an avid baker, this book promises something for everyone.

BUSINESS & SELF-HELP

“Opportunities don’t happen.
You create them.”

– Chris Grosser

Surfing the Asian Wave

How to survive and thrive in the new global reality

STEVE MCGINNES

192 pp, 215 x 136 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 46 4, S$23.35

The world has changed: Asia and the West have converged, and the old borders, rules and ways of working no longer apply. The key skill of this century will be the ability to interact effectively across the Asia/West intersection and in the new blended world. This book combines first-hand experiences from thinkers, leaders and business people across multiple industries with robust academic research, then distils them into clear insights, actions and behaviours the reader can apply in real life.

Youthquake 4.0

A whole generation and the new industrial revolution

ROCKY SCOPELLITI

232 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 61 1, S$28.00

Discover how demographic change associated with Millennials and the Fourth Industrial Revolution collectively influence the way we think about our social, cultural, economic and technological future. Youthquake 4.0 analyses the confluence of these two inextricably linked global forces, leveraging research from world leading institutions and enriched by world leading thought leaders to provide insights toward global challenges, economics, society, technology and innovation and the role of business as the world enters the Fourth Industrial Revolution.

Decrypted

A financial trader's take on cryptocurrency

LENG HOE LON

168 pp, 216 x 135 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 70 3, S$23.35

The technology known as Bitcoin is soaring in demand, and a single unit is valued in the thousands. It has spawned hundreds of clones, and its underlying blockchain technology has created a revolution in computing. It has legally made millionaires of thousands of ordinary people. Decrypted shows you, in plain, no-nonsense terms, exactly how that happened. Cryptocurrency and startup pioneer Leng Hoe Lon walks you through how cryptos work and get their value, their strengths and weaknesses, their implications for the world and how they fit in your investment plans.

Write to Sell

The ultimate guide to great copywriting

ANDY MASLEN

192 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 23 5, S$18.68

Write to Sell is a guide to the practice of great copywriting — not just the theory. Checklists, exercises and mnemonics give you the tools to craft better copy. “Case notes” and concrete examples show you the difference between what works and what doesn’t. Clear and concise, this is the copywriter’s manual. Don’t start writing without it.

Planning Your Will, Trust, LPA & More

KEON CHEE

240 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4794 59 6, S$25.00

The importance of setting out clear instructions about the distribution of your assets or wealth while you are still alive cannot be overstated. This process of estate planning involves making a will and perhaps setting up a trust, depending on your personal circumstances. Estate planner Keon Chee covers the various aspects of estate planning, including the writing of a will, the setting up of a trust, planning your Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) and setting out other important final wishes. He also looks at business succession planning and the effects of owning assets overseas.

Funding for Start-ups

A guide to fundraising

SAMUEL YUEN

216 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 58 1, S$23.50

Funding for Start-ups provides guidance on how to raise funds for new start-ups. This book covers areas such as the legal aspects of different approaches to fundraising, explains fundraising in phases, how to perfect a pitch to an investor, understanding the mindset of an investor, and handling negotiations in the fundraising process.

Resolving Disputes

A guide to the options for Appropriate Dispute Resolution (ADR)

ANIL CHANGAROTH

152 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 51 2, S$21.50

This concise yet thorough guide presents the many Appropriate Dispute Resolution mechanisms available, such as litigation, arbitration, mediation, adjudication, etc. Each dispute resolution mechanism is clearly explained, with practical considerations as to how they may be appropriate. The key differences between the various mechanisms are provided in an easy-to-read table. The author also explores the reasons a party may need to adopt a particular method and considers the international perspectives of ADR.

Lasting Power of Attorney

A guide to the LPA and how to set it up

LIM FUNG PEEN

160 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 56 7, S$21.50

Members of the public have been encouraged to utilise the Lasting Power of Attorney, otherwise known as the LPA, to protect their interests but many are still uncertain or unaware about it. This book explains the LPA in clear terms and how to execute the document, and goes further to set out its importance, why it is needed and the consequences of not having one. It also dispels myths and misconceptions about LPAs.

Touch

Building your brand in the experience economy

JÖRG DIETZEL

152 pp, 216 x 135 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 52 5, S$23.35

From online to offline, Instagram to events: experiences matter. Consumer researchers have called experiences "the new luxury". So what does that mean for brands, established or new? How do you create a seamless brand experience across all touchpoints, one that transforms customers into brand advocates who are telling your story? Brand consultant and university lecturer Jörg Dietzel writes the playbook for creating brand experiences, based on his experience of over 30 years working with blue chip clients in Europe, the United States and Asia.

TREMAINE DU PREEZ

184 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 59 7, S$21.50

Part science and part practice, DECIDE follows Tremain's decade long quest to answer the question: what is a good decision and how do I make one? The answer is illustrated with examples from her pioneering work in building decision-making systems for teams up to large multinational organisations. Tremain's straight talk and use of the latest (and most reliable) research will lead you on a path of discovery as you unpack your own decision-making process, plug the holes in it and learn new skills to ensure that you make the best possible decisions.

Connecting the Dots To Inspire the Leader in You

SHIRLEY TAYLOR

176 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 52 8, S$21.50

Shirley Taylor's heart-warming stories and simple but powerful lessons will inspire readers to unlock their true potential and drive their own success. In looking back at the significant turning points in her life, Shirley shares the key lessons that have helped her to grow both professionally and personally. She then 'connects the dots' to reveal the common thread that runs through all these turning points. In the process, she provides advice and practical tools that will help readers to navigate change, inspire a positive outlook during challenging times, and create new opportunities for growth and success.

99 Privacy Breaches to Beware of

Practical data protection tips from real-life experiences

KEVIN SHEPHERDSON, WILLIAM HIOE & LYN BOXALL

520 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4794 64 0, S$28.00

Data or privacy breaches are on the rise and businesses can be prosecuted under data protection laws. All of us, in the course of our daily work, process personal data, making it easy for us to breach these laws. This book focuses on the ways data can get compromised along the operation chain, and provides examples and practical advice to avoid them. Examples cover operations by human resources, finance, administration and marketing departments, etc., allowing readers to relate to their own area of work.

Sharkonomics 2

How to attack and defend your business in today's disruptive digital waters

STEFAN ENGEETH

208 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 25 9, S$18.68

Sharks are nature's most revered and feared killing machines. But if you study the behaviour of sharks, you will learn they are also highly strategic and efficient in the way they survive and thrive in nature's competitive environment. Inspired by the shark's evolved (over 420 million years) instincts and strategic moves, this book provides businesses with ten ways on how to attack the market leaders, and take market share, in your sector.

Hackathons Unboxed

A field guide to ideating, leading and winning

ALVIN CHIA

160 pp, 215 x 135 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4779 25 8, S$21.50

Hackathons Unboxed takes you behind the scenes to unpack the seeming magic that gives birth to groundbreaking ideas in just three short days. There are in fact a series of repeatable steps, a well-researched methodology, that anybody can follow. More than simply restating principles such as human-centered design and experimentation, this book addresses the real-world constraints, the unforeseen that may pop up, and how to tackle them. Above all, it will show you the link back to your business needs.

Mindfulness Based Leadership

The art of being a leader... not becoming one

KATHIRASAN K

208 pp, 216 x 135 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 27 7, S$23.35

We need leaders with the wisdom to address new ways of working and make positive change in the world. While mindfulness has often been perceived as a solitary activity, this book reveals how it is applicable on a wider scale – in groups, businesses and the wider community. Find out how to balance self and organisational goals, to erase the real and imagined internal conflicts between what we believe in and what we do in reality. The unique 56-day course introduces a new facet of mindfulness everyday – through guided introspection, acceptance and mindful practice – illuminating the ways in which we can unlock the leader within ourselves.

Locker Room Talk

A guide to political correctness in the public domain

STEVE DAWSON

160 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 42 0, S$23.35

Since we humans first harnessed consciousness, we have been watching and learning. We use what we've observed to predict what is comfortable and reliable, and this informs our decision-making processes. But what seems like a useful tool in our head can be cruel and patently unfair beyond it. Trends in a world driven by the Internet are educating us about how harmful stereotyping can be. And those falling foul because of behaviour seemingly ingrained in our DNA are paying high-profile prices. Locker Room Talk examines how we got here, why it's so hard to change our mindset, and the consequences for us and the brands we represent, if we do not.

100 Great Leading Through Frustration Ideas

DR PETER SHAW

240 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 47 4, S$18.60

This book enables readers to address their frustration at work in a fresh and constructive way via a five-point plan: Understand, Plan, Act, Observe and Reframe. In the process, readers can make discoveries about themselves and others, leading to breakthroughs and new beginnings. The book also provides practical ideas to develop skills for leading one through demanding situations. The examples are useful prompts that catch your imagination about what is possible. Readers will develop new insight and resilience that prevents them from being completely absorbed or overwhelmed by frustration.

Personality Driven Portfolio

How to invest right for your style

SAM PHOEN

208 pp, 215 x 136 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 30 7, S$23.35

Successful investing begins with knowing yourself. In Personality Driven Portfolio, author Sam Phoen places investors into four broad categories – Egoistic Elephant, Diligent Deer, Cagey Crab, and Busy Bee. Through a series of questions, readers are shown how to evaluate their investment personality and find a complementary investment approach. Targeted at investors at all levels of experience, this book is a practical guide on how to put together a bespoke portfolio, and how to manage and rebalance that portfolio when necessary to produce sustained, long-term results.

The Executive Warrior

40 powerful questions to develop mental toughness for career success

VICTOR NG

240 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 02 3, S$23.35

Certified executive coach and former award-winning C-suite executive Victor Ng draws on 20 years of corporate experience to take you on a journey of personal discovery and professional empowerment. The book asks strategic questions and guides you to find your own answers – like how a personal coach would. All of them will help you up your game, discover new perspectives, unlock hidden potential, get “unstuck” on a problem, even get that promotion or big job. Whether you're a fresh school-leaver, ambitious young executive or seasoned veteran, you'll find the answers you've been seeking in this inspiring and indispensable self-coaching handbook.

The Ethical Investor's Handbook

How to grow your money without wrecking the earth

MORTEN STRANGE

232 pp, 215 x 136 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 28 4, S$23.35

Global warming, over-population, the biodiversity crisis – the world we live in is in a state of crisis. This is not just an ecological problem; it is an economic problem. We must be wise in the choices we make, not least in the companies and practices we support through our investments. Author Morten Strange shows how economics and finance play a direct role in perpetuating this crisis. Delving into topics such as alternative energy sources, ethical foods and conservation, this book offers practical advice to build a sustainable green portfolio and reap handsome returns.

BRETT KING

Brett King is an acknowledged technology futurist and expert on wealth management, customer experience and retail channel distribution strategy. He is CEO of Movenbank, the world's first mobile bank which he founded in 2011, and strategic advisor to the financial services sector. Named "King of the Disruptors" by Banking Exchange Magazine, King was voted American Banker's "Innovator of the Year", "the world's #1 Financial Services Influencer" by The Financial Brand and was nominated by Bank Innovation as one of the top 10 "coolest brands in banking". He also hosts a radio show called "Breaking Banks" on VoiceAmerica and is a guest blogger with The Huffington Post.

The Rise of Techno Socialism

How inequality, AI and climate will usher in a new world
320 pp, 227 x 152 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 95 2, S$46.00

If the cost of providing universal health care is lower than the cost of building a political movement to prevent it, would politicians still view it as socialism? In a world where algorithms and robots take the jobs of immigrants and citizens alike, are border controls an effective response? If unemployment skyrockets due to automation, would conservative governments rather battle long-term social unrest or could they agree on something like universal basic income? When renewable energy sources are a fraction of the cost of coal generated electricity, should lobbyists be able to prevent changes to energy infrastructure? When the crowd's mood is measured in influence and exabytes, will real-time democracy render elections a thing of the past?

International bestselling authors Brett King and Dr. Richard Petty explore the seismic social changes that will be thrust on the world over the coming decades. The Rise of Techno-Socialism seeks to answer both how our children will live with AI and climate disruption, along with which economies will likely emerge victorious in an always-on, smart world.

CHRIS SKINNER

Chris Skinner is best known as an independent commentator on the financial markets through his blog, the Finanser.com, and Chair of the European networking forum The Financial Services Club. He has been voted one of the most influential people in banking by The Financial Brand, a FinTech Titan, one of the FinTech leaders you need to follow, one of the world's top experts on banking according to Klout, as well as one of the Top 40 most influential people in financial technology by the Wall Street Journal's Financial News.

“One of the most authoritative voices on FinTech anywhere ... another timely and thoughtful look into the fascinating convergence of technology, e-commerce, and finance that is changing the world.”

—Seth Wheeler, Former Economics Advisor to the US President and The White House (on Digital Bank)

Doing Digital

Lessons from leaders
400 pp, 227 x 152 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4841 43 6, S$37.38

There has been lots of discussion of digital and open banking, banking-as-a-service, banking platforms, FinTech and TechFin and more over the past decade. We are in a decade of rapid cycle change that presents huge challenges and huge opportunities. How are banks dealing with these changes and are any banks showing leadership?

Chris Skinner, world-leading commentator on banking and technology, has selected five banks to share their experiences. In detailed interviews, and with wide-ranging commentary, he has discovered the secrets of not just adapting and surviving, but thriving in this sea change of finance and technology.

Email Essentials

How to write effective emails and build great relationships one message at a time

SHIRLEY TAYLOR

192 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4771 72 6, S$21.50

Just as body language helps you to make an impression in person, what you write in your emails and how you write them affect what people think of you and your organisation. This invaluable guide offers step-by-step pointers that readers can put into practice right away. The highlight of the book is a series of model templates, covering scenarios like requests for information, conveying bad news, complaints and sales prospecting. These are analysed to show what makes them simple yet effective.

Chia Ann Siang and Family

The tides of fortune

RUTH CHIA, LINDA KOW AND SOH TIANG KENG

176 pp, 215 x 140 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 30 3, S$28.03

Chia Ann Siang was once one of Singapore's wealthiest men – a landowner, merchant and philanthropist. Born in Malacca in 1834, he came to Singapore and joined Boustead, an English trading company, as a storekeeper. At the tender age of 22, he was made Chief Storekeeper. An astute property investor, Chia continued to acquire much real estate in the course of his life, including a large nutmeg plantation which soon became known as Ann Siang Hill. Far more than a biography, this is the fascinating story of eight generations of Straits Chinese from 1774 to the present day.

Traveller's Tales of Old Singapore

Expanded Bicentennial Edition

COMPILED BY MICHAEL WISE

352 pp, 234 x 156 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4794 41 1, S$28.00

From the very beginning, Singapore's promise of adventure and romance lured visitors to her shores. The 77 tales in this expanded bicentennial collection take the reader back to the early days when pirates roamed the seas and tigers ate Chinamen for breakfast. It was an era of rickshaws and gharries, of pepper and gambier plantations, of secret societies and opium dens. Some notable persons whose impressions appear include Britain's Prince Albert and Prince George, British governors William Cavenagh and Frank Swettenham, female traveller Lady Isabella Bird, American millionaire Andrew Carnegie and Chinese scholar Li Chung Chu.

The Istana

THE GOVERNMENT OF SINGAPORE

172 pp, 270 x 230 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 50 1, S$23.36

This definitive publication on the Istana grants us access to the grand old building like never before. Authoritative, well-researched text and stunning photography guide us on an intimate and detailed tour through the history, architecture and grounds of the Istana, while introducing us to the people that were part of the journey along the way.

Between the Bay of Bengal and the Java Sea

Trade routes, ancient ports and cultural commonalities in Southeast Asia

MARIANA ISA AND MAGANJEET KAUR

256 pp, 152 x 227 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4779 27 2, S$26.00

This book traces the diffusion of cultures across Southeast Asia from the last few centuries BCE, by looking at trade goods such as Indian beads, Chinese ceramics and spices from the Indonesian archipelago. The authors take us through a host of ancient port cities, such as Srivijaya, whose fortunes were intimately tied to these trade routes, pointing out similarities in architecture and customs. Richly illustrated with maps, drawings and photographs, this work is an illuminating slice of history that reveals in beautiful detail the long-standing mercantile links and cultural kinship.

Burmese Silver Art

Stories of ancient wisdom

DAVID C OWENS

208 pp, 300 x 230 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 88 4, S$65.00

This book is a visual spectacle of more than 100 alluring silver artefacts crafted in Burma (Myanmar) during the mid-19th to early 20th centuries – a period coined the 'Burmese Silver Age'. For the first time in a dedicated publication, the extraordinary technical skill and aesthetic work of Burmese silversmiths are illuminated. At the same time, the characters, scenes and stories on the silverwork is described to give us deep cultural and social insights into a hitherto little-known world.

Architecture of Shame

HO KWONCJAN

280 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 99 3, S$18.68

Architect Ho Kwoncjian, digging into history (and digging up dirt as well) now reveals some terrible truths ... and more!

- The Great Wall of China was meant to be a ditch
- Angkor Wat was built facing the wrong direction
- The Leaning Tower of Pisa does not lean
- The Taj Mahal received a mastectomy
- Napoleon was buried in a cesspit
- The Eiffel Tower is a shameless hussy

The Food of Singapore Malays

Gastronomic travels through the Archipelago

KHIR JOHARI

324 pp, 275 x 245 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 92 4, S$88.00

This book explores in detail the history and culture of Malay food in Singapore, which sits at the heart of the Malay Archipelago. How did Malay cuisine evolve to its modern-day form? How has geography influenced the way Malays eat? What cultural beliefs shape the rituals of Malay gastronomy? What do the cooking tools and techniques tell us about the Malay worldview? Coupled with stunning photographs from around the Malay Archipelago, this book is set to be the definitive work on Malay gastronomy. Born and raised in the historic Gedung Kuning (Yellow Mansion) in Kampong Gelam, Khir is a collector and researcher of Malay history and culture, former vice-president of the Singapore Heritage Society, a diehard foodie, and an amazing cook.

Postcard Impressions of Early 20th-century Singapore

Perspectives from the Japanese community

From the Lim Shao Bin Collection, National Library Singapore

TEXT BY NAOKO SHIMAZU, REGINA HONG AND LING XI MIN

156 pp, 250 x 235 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 1427 06 0, S$32.00

This evocative collection of more than 200 picture postcards offers a fascinating insight into Singaporean society in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century. A means of conveying information, advertisements, personal correspondence, historical records and even propaganda, postcards have taken on many roles throughout Singapore's history, making them valuable and unique historical sources. The authors' study of these cards illuminates for the first time new historical perspectives on tourism, war, empire and the Japanese community in pre-war Singapore.

From the Stacks

The National Library's Rare Materials Collection comprises more than 15,000 items from the past six centuries, and this book features 50 of the most important and unique among them. This specially curated selection includes manuscripts, maps, correspondence, photographs, prints and illustrations – all of which combine to provide us with new avenues of understanding into Singapore's history.

Those Were the Days

256 pp, 220 x 260 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 56 3, S$42.05

It has been said that a picture is worth a thousand words and this is most evident in Mun Chor Seng's evocative images. Those were the Days features over 700 original photographs. While some images have been shared with the Singapore Memory Portal, most of the images in this book have never been published. The photographs range from early street scenes to human interest photos of how Singaporeans lived, worked and played. They capture Singapore in the years of early independence.

GELYN ONG & FRIENDS

144 pp, 200 x 140 mm, PB,
ISBN 978 981 4841 49 8, S$18.68

Celebrated child artist and former WWF ambassador Gelyn Ong, who published her first book at age 8, has roped in her friends for this new project. She believes that reviews of fun and cool places for children are best done by their peers as they know what people their age like. With this in mind they explore some of Singapore's most popular tourist places and provide reviews from a young person's perspective. The book includes beautiful colour illustrations executed by Gelyn as well as photographs and fun activities.

#FlushableFashion

JIAN YANG

168 pp, 200 x 200 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4841 97 9, S$37.38

As one of the world's largest Barbie collectors, Jian Yang always brings a doll with him on his travels. But something happened in Sri Lanka in May 2017 – he made his first doll dress out of toilet paper. He has not stopped since, and every night at every hotel he stayed in, a paper couture creation would be made. This delightful book is a visual celebration of Jian's fabulous tissue paper dresses – sustainable fashion that is not only intricate but biodegradable. Just as how they are one-of-a-kind creations, this book is truly a special collector's edition.

The Art of Chua Mia Tee

A portrait of a life's work

ART BY CHUA MIA TEE; TEXT BY VARIOUS

352 pp, 285 x 225 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4779 22 7, S$65.00

The first significant monograph on the artist Chua Mia Tee marking his conferment of the Cultural Medallion in 2015, this definitive monograph brings together more than 300 works of art, spanning almost seven decades of Chua's practice since the 1950s. It is an invaluable resource and addition to the canon of works in Singapore art research and development.

Jalan Singapura

700 years of movement in Singapore

EISEN TEO

480 pp, 210 x 170 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 74 1, S$32.70

As we mark the bicentennial of Singapore's founding, it's timely to trace the evolution of land transport, traffic and urbanisation in the country, from ancient times to the present. After extensive research through archival documents, maps and other historical records, history buff Eisen Teo has produced an amazing work that shows how land transport, traffic and urbanisation are intertwined with one another and have influenced each other in Singapore throughout its history.

Buddhist Temples of Thailand

A visual journey through Thailand's 42 most historic wats

TEXT BY JOE CUMMINGS, PHOTOGRAPHS BY DAN WHITE

256 pp, 270 x 240 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4828 80 2, S$56.00

This lavishly illustrated full-colour book explores the Buddhist temple's historical position in Thai culture and the dynamic role it continues to play in everyday life. Some 42 of the kingdom's best-known sites and rare gems, such as Wat Phra Kaew in Bangkok and Wat Phumin in Nan, are brought to life through expert text and more than 200 commissioned photographs.

Indochine Style

TEXT BY BARBARA WALKER, PHOTOGRAPHS BY JAY GRAHAM

240 pp, 200 x 200 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 98 6, S$35.00

Indochine style emerged in the late 1800s to the mid 1950s, when France colonized Laos, Cambodia and Vietnam, forming French Indochina. The designs that emerged during this period combined traditional Asian perspectives with touches of French influence. Motifs derived from the flora and fauna of the region appeared in textiles, arts and crafts, while architectural details respected the principle of 'form follows function'. The result was an exotic presence in the decorative arts, home furnishings, architecture, fashion and the visual arts.

Thai Style

TEXT BY WILLIAM WARREN, PHOTOGRAPHS BY LUCA I TETTONI

228 pp, 200 x 200 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 78 9, S$35.00

Chedis, chofahs and intricate decorative details are some of the architectural features that distinguish Thai style, where function is combined with an innate beauty of form. This book features some of the most beautiful hotels in Thailand. Other enchanting depictions include elements that are found throughout rustic and modern settings, occasionally bringing the reader into the artfully designed interior. The essence of this beautiful country is revealed in the stunning photos.

Chiang Mai Style

TEXT BY JOE CUMMINGS, PHOTOGRAPHS BY LUCA I TETTONI

232 pp, 200 x 200 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 79 6, S$35.00

This publication is a celebration of Chiang Mai style with stunning photographs that capture the essence of Chiang Mai's architecture and interiors, as well as its arts and crafts. The book takes the reader on a journey through the tribal tradition of the houses of northern Thailand and gives a sweeping view of the city's most contemporary homes, luxurious resorts and spas, with modern interiors yet retaining the essence of Chiang Mai's rich architectural heritage.

MUDLEY EXPLORES

Mudley the bear belongs to a little girl called Sophie. She lives in a small town in Europe. She would love to travel the world but she has to go to school. And so, each time Dad has to leave for work at faraway places, Sophie packs Mudley into his suitcase and tells him, "Daddy please let Mudley see the world for me."

Being narrated by a bear, the series stimulates, excites and educates young people by giving them the culture and heritage of the places they are going to visit and gives parents reason to interact with their children. Each location features photographs depicting the area with Mudley in view, a brief outline, illustrations to tell another story and a playful anecdote that will engage the reader.

Seven Hundred Years

A history of Singapore

KWA CHONG GUAN, DEREK HENG, PETER BORSCHBERG AND TAN TAI YONG
322 pp, 255 x 192mm, PB with flaps, ISBN 978 981 4828 10 9, S$35.00

This ambitious book, co-written by four of Singapore's foremost historians, offers an assertive re-evaluation of history. Drawing on a multi-disciplinary range of archival, textual and cartographical records, as well as the latest archaeological discoveries, the authors cast a singular historical trajectory for Singapore over the past seven centuries, animating its history like never before. Written in a compelling and accessible manner, and richly illustrated with over 200 artefacts, photographs, maps, art works and ephemera, this volume builds upon the foundations of an earlier book but is extensively rewritten to incorporate ground-breaking research findings, Seven Hundred Years widens the historical lens and offers a vital new perspective on the story of Singapore.

20 Years of Can Asians Think?

Commemorative Edition

KISHORE MAHBUBANI

232 pp, 227 x 152 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4794 61 9, S$32.70

It has been 20 years since Kishore Mahbubani first took the bold step of asking the politically incorrect question, “Can Asians think?” This commemorative edition of Can Asians Think? celebrates the long-running success of the publication and the continued relevance of the author's thought-provoking essays. Comprising of 18 essays selected by the author from those published over the past 20 years and with additional new essays, this volume includes an Introduction and Postscript comments by the author on what he foresees for Asia in the years ahead.

The Unfinished Revolution

Sun Yat-sen and the struggle for modern China

TJIO KAYLOE

400 pp, 227 x 152 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4779 07 4, S$42.00

From rebel on the run to first president of republican China, the life of Sun Yat-sen (1866–1925) epitomizes his country's turbulent struggle for modernity. The Unfinished Revolution is a superb new biography of Sun Yat-sen, whose life, like the confusion of his time, is not easy to interpret. His political career was marked mostly by setbacks, yet he became a cult figure in China after his death. Today he is the only 20th-century Chinese leader to be widely revered on both sides of the Taiwan Strait. In contrast, many Western historians see little in his ideas or deeds to warrant such high esteem. This book presents the most balanced account of Sun to date.

JAMES WISE

320 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 54 2, S$34.60

This introductory book on Thai politics and the rule of law explains why chronically unstable Thailand struggles to mediate and adjudicate its political disputes. It focuses on the continuities between the pre-1932 and post-1932 periods. As a result of historical continuities, Thailand is the site of co-existing traditional and modern political legitimacies, which have affected the rule of law, freedom of expression and nationalism. The gap between these legitimacies is narrowing but still wide. The book concludes by asking whether adherents to both legitimacies can agree soon on the recasting of Thailand's governance.

From Third World to First details the extraordinary efforts it took for an island city-state in Southeast Asia to survive, with just a "razor's edge" to manoeuvre in, as Albert Winsemius, Singapore's economic advisor in the 1960s, put it.

Student Editions

These student editions are shortened versions of the first volume of Lee Kuan Yew's memoirs published in 2008. In both English and Chinese, each volume covers all the significant moments in the life of Singapore's first Prime Minister and dispenses with passages that do not directly concern Singapore.

The student edition:

- Traces Lee Kuan Yew's boyhood, his Japanese Occupation experience, his four years in England as a student when his political views took shape, and his work preparing for the launch of the People's Action Party.
- Describes how Lee and his colleagues worked as a united front with the communists, won the elections, became the government, and finally broke with the communists and fought against them.
- Details the troubles Lee and his colleagues faced from communal intimidation and domination by the Malay extremists in Malaysia until Singapore was asked to leave Malaysia and become independent on 9 August 1965.

MALAYSIA

The People's Victory

How Malaysians saved their country

KEE THUAN CHYE

288 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 84 0, S$23.35

This book tells the epic story of how Malaysians took responsibility for their country and struggled against the odds to change their government. Starting with the outcome of the 13th general election in 2013 and then moving through five years of drama, surprises, ironies and twists to the climactic 14th general election of 9 May 2018, the narrative grows from despair to hope to euphoria. This book honours the concerned citizens who fought the good fight and contributed in ways big and small to bring about a new Malaysia. What they achieved was truly a victory of the people.

Anwar Returns: The Final Twist

The prosecution and release of Anwar Ibrahim

MARK TROWELL, QC

400 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 59 8, S$28.00

Read about the dramatic twists and turns in the prosecution of Anwar Ibrahim, from when he was first charged with sodomy in September 1998 to his vindication 20 years later. This book covers not only the trials and prosecution Anwar was subjected to, it also recounts the changing political tide sweeping through Malaysia that culminated in his historic release in 2018. Mark Trowell also presents an exclusive interview held in May 2018, in which Anwar reveals much about his time in prison, his new relationship with Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad and his vision for Malaysia.

Karpal Singh, Tiger of Jelutong

The full biography

TIM DONOGHUE

380 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 45 0, S$32.00

Karpal Singh is widely regarded as Malaysia's best criminal and constitutional lawyer. His sudden death on 17 April 2014 in a horrific car accident – just a month after he was convicted of sedition in the High Court – shocked and saddened Malaysians to the core and left a deep void in the country's legal and political landscape. A fearless advocate for justice and a defender of human rights in Southeast Asia, he is renowned for his defence of many people from many nations who have faced the death penalty under Malaysia's Dangerous Drugs Act. In this updated edition, veteran journalist Tim Donoghue completes the biography of Malaysia's tenacious and principled lawyer-politician.

Moving Forward

Malaysia for the 21st century

NIK NAZMI NIK AHMAD

152 pp, 140 x 216 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 87 0, S$21.50

The post-2018 order is an exciting time of possibilities for Malaysia. For the country's Malay community to face new challenges of the 21st century and thrive, it has to look forward and forge ahead in a progressive manner. In this updated edition, Nik Nazmi pushes for a paradigm that is comfortable with diversity and democracy. With the world changing and new problems to confront, Malaysia is brought to a crossroads. The choice is clear: stay in a limbo of mediocrity with eventual decline looming, or move forward educationally, economically, politically and socially.

The Other Side of History

A unique view of momentous events from the last 60 years

SIMON MAIER

224 pp, 216 x 135 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4771 37 5, S$23.35

Author Simon Maier casts himself in the role of a hotelier who has worked in different cities around the world. Wry, witty and sharp, history is told through a refreshing point of view. As the narrator chronicles key events of the 20th and 21st centuries, he provides details of the atmosphere, and recounts tales from people on the ground, along with sketches of the mood of the time. Such details infuse the most important occasions of modern times with insight, precision and warmth. This book is a fascinating mix of fact and fiction; of what did happen and what might have happened.

Birds of Singapore
CHRISTOPHER HAILS & FRANK JARVIS
176 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB
ISBN 978 981 4794 47 3, S$28.00

For a relatively tiny island, with such a high ratio of urban development, Singapore contains a surprisingly large number of birds – native species as well as seasonal visitors due to its strategic position on a migration route between temperate Asia and the eastern tropics.

In this classic guide, Dr Christopher Hails leads the reader to all the major birdwatching habitats in Singapore, explaining changing patterns with shifting development and nature’s fascinating adaptations to urban encroachment. His scholarly insights into migration, simplified for the lay reader, are enthralling and illuminating.

The illustrations have been painted by artist Frank Jarvis entirely from field sketches and, where essential, from studying skins and nests in the valued Raffles’ Collection, thus offering the highest level of accuracy in both the birds’ features and their behaviour.

On the 30th anniversary of its publication, Marshall Cavendish is proud to release the paperback edition of this evergreen work, whose keenly observed illustrations and explanations have yet to be surpassed.

30 Useful Herbs & Spices of Thailand
A guide to their characteristics and uses in cooking and healing
HUGH T.W. TAN
192 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4771 38 2, S$23.00

Thai cuisine is famed for the complexity and delicacy of its flavours, largely the result of the herbs and spices used. Surprisingly, only thirty or so are needed; it is the ingenious combination or blending of these ingredients that makes Thai food beloved throughout the world. At the same time that they add flavour, these herbs and spices bring curative properties that have been recognised in traditional practice. In this book, each description of a herb or spice includes its scientific and common names in English and Thai, a botanical description of the plant, how it should be stored to best preserve its qualities, its culinary and medicinal uses, and other notable applications.

Botanical Singapore

An illustrated guide to popular plants and flowers

WILLIAM SIM

80 pp

227 x 152 mm, HB

ISBN 978 981 4751 96 4, S$28.00

Botanical Singapore is a collection of watercolour and pencil illustrations of commonly seen plants and flowers. Executed in the style of the William Farquhar Collection, these drawings by artist William Sim are botanically accurate but also include his signature whimsical touch. Each illustration is accompanied by short succinct text giving the plant's common name and a short description. Packaged in a handy size, this smart hardcover book will appeal to natural history lovers as well as travellers and art lovers.

FICTION

“Fiction reveals truth
that reality obscures.”
– Ralph Waldo Emerson

THE EVOLVED ONES BY NATASHA OLIVER

198 x 130 mm, PB, S$18.68

Book 1: Awakening

332 pp, ISBN 978 981 4841 44 3

Rox awoke four years ago without a single memory of who she was or where she came from, and with the involuntary ability to heal. Speech and most of her higher level cognitive functions were working, but everything about herself felt unfamiliar. Plagued by insecurity and confusion, she leaves the only home she can remember in search of her true identity.

Book 2: Sacrifice

352 pp
ISBN 978 981 4893 11 4

Rox returns home to a family that she doesn't remember and torn apart by her absence. When her loved ones come under attack, she's tempted to disappear again to keep them safe, but this time Rox is ready to fight back.

Book 3: Acceptance

336 pp
ISBN 978 981 4893 12 1
Tensions rise between EOs and ordinary humans. Rox and her team are the only ones who can save the EOs, but to do so, she may have to walk away from her family – permanently. (available 2021)

Last Days of the Morning Calm

TINA JIMIN WALTON

216 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 30 6, S$18.68

Korea, 1895: court intrigue and foreign powers threaten the centuries-old “hermit kingdom”. In a prominent manor, Ji-nah, the fourteen-year-old ward, and Han, the seventeen-year-old servant, suspect foul play when Master Yi sends a mysterious letter putting Tutor Lim in charge. When the two young people uncover the tutor's hand in their master's disappearance and his broader conspiracy to overthrow Queen Min, they are determined to save the queen, whose fate seems tied to their master. This book was shortlisted for the 2018 Scholastic Asian Book Award.

Kebaya Tales (10th Anniversary Edition)

LEE SU KIM

208 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 75 4, S$18.68

The bestselling collection of Peranakan tales, now with two brand new stories. Teeming with fascinating characters and unexpected plot twists, Kebaya Tales celebrates the colourful, flamboyant world of the babas and nyonias – a unique community of Peranakans for whom rituals, beliefs and superstitions are still very much part of everyday life. Laced with humour, poignancy and gentle satire, these stories are based on or inspired by real-life events passed down from generations of mothers, grandmothers, bibiks and nyonias.

The Loving and the Dead

Tales of the supernatural

CATHERINE LIM

144 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 93 1, S$18.68

Catherine Lim's free-wheeling imagination cheerfully dispenses with all constraints to tell stories of that other world. Written with an exaggerated sense of earnestness and caution, the eighteen tales in this collection elicit in the reader the very goosebumps of terror she had herself experienced as a child listening to such tales. As an adult, these goosebumps persist for her. However, they no longer arise from fear, but from a sense of awe and mystery that she feels when she considers this large existential question: Despite our extensive scientific knowledge today, what do we know of the supernatural? What can we know of the supernatural?

The Last Server

H.J. PANG

224 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 15 0, S$18.68

After a geomagnetic storm, Singapore is plunged into apocalyptic ruin. Greg Lin travels along the ruined SMRT lines to find his son who has been taken by the triad that has been kidnapping children for experimentation. Along the way, he learns about a computer cult seeking the last of the world's data that can help rebuild society. Together with the remnants of the now-defunct SAF forces, Greg storms the Marina Bay Shoppes to locate The Last Server, in an explosive climax where he discovers that the crucial data everyone seeks may not be of this world.

The New Singapore Horror Collection

S.J. HUANG

216 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 22 8, S$18.68

Horror strikes deepest when it hits close to home. This collection uncovers the secret fears that lurk within the Singapore psyche, the unspoken terrors obscured by the lights and hubbub of city living. For all our modernity, we have never quite shaken off the primal predators that stalk our minds to this day. Outside, the unknown skulks in the shadows, waiting to pounce; within us, there resides a primitive darkness we fear we may never expunge. These 13 stories explore our disquiet, our unease about the things we cannot see, understand or hope to easily overcome.

The Ghost Who Pinched Me

MABEL GAN

136 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 88 7, S$14.95

Ten-year-old Bee grows up sheltered and privileged in 1940s Singapore, jealous of her beautiful, perfect elder sister, Ying. When the Japanese attack Singapore, Ying is killed in an air raid at school and the family endure wartime hardship and the horrors of occupation. But to Bee's surprise, her sister's love and care for her survives in an unexpected way and Bee grows to cherish the bonds that hold fast even in the face of devastating loss. Written with humour and unflinching clarity through the eyes of a child, this coming-of-age novel is an intimate family portrait of sisterhood, emotional resilience and the people we choose to call kin.

Princess Incognito by N.J. HUMPHREYS

A Royal Pain in the Class

184 pp, 135 x 215 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 68 0, S$14.95

When Princess Sabrina of the House of Valence is exiled to a dull, working-class town, she must go undercover to keep her royal identity secret. Sabrina lives with her Uncle Ernie, The Earl of Parslowe, who has trained her to be an epic taekwondo expert. But even he can't prepare Sabrina for Awful Agatha. The school bully hates Sabrina on sight and the two quickly become arch-enemies. Sabrina definitely has the right skills for a royal, but can she survive against Awful Agatha in the most rotten school in the world?

Nightmare at the Museum

192 pp, 135 x 215 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 76 1, S$14.95

A school trip to a museum in the big city promises to be a welcome escape from Sabrina's big fat lie of a life. But at the museum, Sabrina's most terrifying fears are realised: there's an exhibition on her home country, Mulakating, and its royal family – her family! Her deepest, darkest secret could be revealed! In one long, breathless race around the museum, the secret princess must call upon her devious Uncle Ernie, her dopey friend Charlie and even Awful Agatha to keep the class away from the shocking truth.

Sacred Waters

Orphaned as a child and widowed at thirteen, Sita has always known the shame of being born female in Indian society. Her life could not be more different from her daughter's. While trying to unravel the mysteries in her mother's past, Amita encounters a traumatic event that leads her down the path of self-discovery. Unfolding simultaneously, their stories are set against the dramatic sweep of India's anti-colonial struggle in the 1940s. The narrative moves between present and past, from modern-day Singapore to pre-war rural India, and to the chaotic Burmese battlefield where Sita experiences life as a recruit in the Rani of Jhansi Regiment, the women's unit of the Indian National Army. This is a compelling exploration of two women's struggle to assert themselves in male-dominated societies of both the past and the present.

Following this announcement, the lives of the residents in Sadhbela, a Bombay apartment block, are irreversibly swept along by planetary influence in this entertaining story filled with tragedy and comedy in equal measures.

A Far Horizon

416 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 61 7, S$23.35

Set in Calcutta in 1756, A Far Horizon tells the compelling and evocative story of events leading up to the notorious Black Hole of Calcutta incident. In this tale of native evil and British victimisation, set during the fall of the British fortress of Fort William in Calcutta, a wicked nawab is said to have imprisoned 144 Englishmen in a tiny room for one night. In the morning only 23 people emerged alive. Their ordeal has fed the legends of colonialism for well over 200 years. In modern times however Indian historians challenge the truth of this account. The novel explores not only the events that led up to that incident but the lives of a town divided by race and culture, and the prejudices that would soon grow unchecked in the era of Empire.

Mystery at Red Marsh Lake

NATHANAEL REED

168 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 85 6, S$14.95

Caleb Weybourne is sent to spend the summer in the far reaches of northern Canada with his anthropologist father, who hopes to prove the existence of the Mahkneejosh, the great water monster of Ojibway legend. Together with two intrepid local boys, Isaac and Eli Cobby, he spends his days in the sun fishing and hiking. When a reward is offered for information leading to the arrest of Kibo, a sinister fugitive, the boys decide to go on a scouting mission along Red Marsh Lake. Will they find Kibo's hideout? Is his father's enigmatic Ojibway guide a shaman? And just what is the thing in the water out on Red Marsh Lake?

BIOGRAPHIES, SOCIAL ISSUES & TRUE CRIME

“Who controls the past controls the future.
Who controls the present controls the past.”

– George Orwell

Reluctant Editor

The Singapore media as seen through the eyes of a veteran newspaper journalist

PN BALJI

196 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 20 8, S$21.50

PN Balji was an active participant in mainstream journalism, having spent nearly 40 years working in five newsrooms. In this book, Balji weaves a compelling narrative, with anecdotes, of an alternative story of how some editors of his generation managed to hold the ground in challenging times. He brings back the drama, mostly played behind the scenes, and attempts to answer the question: What made the editors of the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s act the way they did?

On Air

Untold stories from Caldecott Hill

VARIOUS

528 pp, 234 x 180 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 53 5, S$37.38

This collection of 51 essays contains the rich memories of Singapore's broadcasting pioneers based in their station atop Caldecott Hill. The writers have recorded eight decades worth of work and life experiences, and have shared precious stories from the Japanese Occupation of Caldecott Hill to the fascinating behind-the-scenes happenings that cast light on well known and well loved shows. With a foreword by George Yeo, and featuring a rare collection of archival photographs, this publication is the first of its kind and provides an insight into the history and development of broadcasting in Singapore.

Memories of an ambassador

K. KESAVAPANY WITH ANITHA DEVI PILLAI

192 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 50 4, S$25.20

This biography documents K. Kesavapany's journey from the Malayan estates in the late 1930s to his move to Singapore when he was headhunted to join the Singapore Civil Service in the 1970s, and from his entry into Singapore's Ministry of Foreign Affairs to his subsequent sojourns abroad, in Australia, Turkey, Geneva, Jordan, Indonesia, Russia, United Kingdom and Malaysia. He also took on the position of Director of the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies and held several prominent portfolios in Singapore's social and academic scene.

Fight Through Cartoons

My story of harassment, intimidation & jail

ZUNAR

256 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 22 1, S$28.00

This book chronicles Zunar's fight through cartoons from 2009 to 2018. Peppered within these pages are some of Zunar's timeless philosophies on cartooning, which have kept him going despite the odds stacked against him – arrests, court charges, banning of books, travel ban. Zunar also sheds light on the methodological approach he utilises in his cartoons to effectively deliver his messages. From the conception of a cartoon right down to inking it, Zunar bares what goes on in his mind when he draws these cartoons. From being labelled controversial to becoming an award-winning cartoonist, this is Zunar's fight through cartoons in his own words.

No Mountain too High

Dr KUMARAN RASSAPAN

240 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 41 3, S$23.35

In a gripping story of human endurance and extraordinary compassion, Singaporean doctor Kumaran Rasappan takes readers to the soaring summit of Everest, through the devastating 2015 earthquake, and to the peaceful hamlets of Nepal where the warm villagers have become both patients and friends.

Always a Commando

The life of Singapore army pioneer Clarence Tan

THOMAS A. SQUIRE

288 pp, 227 x 152 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4779 31 9, S$23.50

Lieutenant-Colonel Clarence Tan Kim Peng (Retired) was born on his family's rubber plantation in 1941 in Singapore, just ten months prior to the Japanese invasion of what was then British Malaya. From serving as an army officer during race riots in Singapore, to searching for communist insurgents and Indonesian infiltrators in the jungles of Malaysia during the Emergency and the Confrontation, LTC Tan was part of both the British and Malaysian armies before becoming a pioneer officer in Singapore's defence force.

Beyond a Reasonable Doubt

Giving voice to the accused

N. SIVANANDAN

184 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 48 1, S$21.45

In this book, N Sivanandan, one of the longest-serving interpreters in Singapore's judiciary, gives an insight into the work of a court interpreter. During his twenty years in the High Court and more than thirty years in the Subordinate Courts (now the State Courts), Sivanandan has interpreted in lengthy criminal cases – mostly murder, rape and robbery – and long, complicated civil trials before High Court judges, many with formidable reputations. Here are interesting cases that show what it is like standing next to the witness box and giving voice to the witness or litigant in a courtroom.

Lost at 15, Found at 50

Travel, trials & tribulations in foreign lands

ASHWINI DEVARE

256 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4828 82 6, S$21.50

From the Soviet Union's Iron Curtain to Burma's Bamboo Curtain and Sikkim to Seoul, this memoir follows the journey of a young girl whose life was a cross-continental rollercoaster ride that soared and plunged from one country to another. By the time she was fifteen, Ashwini Devare had lived in six countries. Her globetrotting life continued when she became a career journalist, and her story culminates in the tropical foliage of Singapore.

We Adopted

A collection of dog rescue tales

DANIEL BOEY

280 pp, 250 x 185 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 16 7, S$37.38

Adoption is the new badge of honour; adoption is the new 'Black'. This book is an anthology of modern, real-life fairy tails of doggie salvation. It features some of the most incredible comeback stories and tales of resilience, forgiveness, trust, love, human cruelty, greed and miracle rebounds, dogs on the brink of death – and the owners who never gave up on them.

How to Train Your Hooman

A doggie handbook

DANIEL BOEY & HAO SOH

48 pp, 250 x 184 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 87 7, S$14.00

Welcoming a new hooman (human) into a dog's life can be a tricky affair. Hoomans need to be taught the fundamentals of doggie behaviour in order to integrate successfully into our world. This beautifully illustrated book is a useful go-to guide put together by a rescued ex-breeding dog to help inexperienced canines cope with the stress of adopting a new person. From picking the right home to basic leash training, communication and safety, to exercises for keeping your hooman healthy and engaged, this handy handbook is for every doggie who is a new hooman-owner.

Madness

In the trenches of America's troubled Department of Veterans Affairs

ANDREA PLATE

232 pp, 215 x 140 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 86 3, S$23.35

Enter the Kafkaesque world of America's famous but notorious Department of Veterans Affairs, where returning soldiers seek a new start to the rest of their lives. While the government bureaucracy can be as formidable a foe as that on any battlefield or in the barracks, these veterans are willing to face the demons of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, drug addiction and other military-related traumas with the help of fiercely committed social workers, psychologists and healthcare experts.

16 Swipes No Breakfast

MARK POWELL

176 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4868 86 0, S$18.68

This book takes you on a journey of discovery through a rinse cycle of Tinder dates, personal encounters, and struggles, as author Mark Powell navigates the sea of online profiles in search of his soulmate. Through a fair number of swipes and a very unfair number of breakfasts, you'll smile, split your sides laughing and be thankful to have dodged these yourself. You will sympathise, empathise, and maybe even recognise your own situations as Mark – with his old-school values – embarks on a wild ride in our modern dating scene.

Manglish

Malaysian English at its wackiest!

DR LEE SU KIM AND STEPHEN J. HALL

136 pp, 198 x 130 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4841 42 9, S$14.95

No head no tail when confronted with “Let’s cabut”, “Sure koyak” or “So humsup”? Manglish casts a fun, entertaining look at Malaysian English in all its unique, idiosyncratic, rojak glory. Whether you’re a true-blue Malaysian or a fresh-off-the-plane mat salleh, you’ll never be at a loss for words.

Spiaking Singlish

A companion to how Singaporeans communicate

DR GWEE LI SUI

208 pp, 210 x 173 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4794 18 3, S$23.35

Spiaking Singlish doesn’t just describe Singlish elements, rather, it aims to show how Singlish can be used in a confident and stylish way to communicate. Gwee Li Sui’s collection of highly entertaining articles shares his observation of how Singlish has evolved over the decades. To appeal to the “kiasu” nature of readers, each of the 45 pieces comes with a bonus comic strip. There is also a Singlish quiz at the end of the book for readers to test their grasp of Singlish!

The Nuts and Bolts of English Grammar

NORHAIDA AMAN AND LUDWIG TAN

184 pp, 215 x 180 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4771 39 9, S$35.00

This book will help you understand what English grammar is and how it works. It will show how English combines parts of words to form longer words, how words change their form and combine with other words to form phrases, and how phrases are subsequently combined to form clauses and sentences and texts. Grammar is made both interesting and practical with real-life grammar puzzles.

Imagine All This

How to write your own stories

DON BOSCO

256 pp, 216 x 135 mm, PB, ISBN 978 981 4771 15 3, S$23.35

Whatever you can imagine, you can write! But first, you must learn to imagine. This book will help you. It gives you a simple and fun process for developing all the stories that you want to write. Each chapter will focus on one specific creative task, such as figuring out your story concept, creating characters that feel alive and real, building momentum, organising your story as you write, editing your drafts, and handling different genres. There are also step-by-step instructions for developing your imagination, so that it becomes a wonderful creative playground which you can enjoy revisiting again and again. This book also draws upon recent brain science research to explain how to create more intimate and emotional story experiences for your readers.

Peng's Fun with Chinese Characters for Children
Help your child learn Chinese the fun way!

TAN HUAY PENG
144 pp, 185 x 175 mm, PB
ISBN 978 981 4561 14 3, S$16.35

The Chinese script, with its many complex strokes, can often prove to be a formidable challenge especially for the young learner of Chinese — and even adult learners of the language. In this new volume, over 100 essential Chinese characters that every beginning learner should know have been carefully selected and compiled. Humorous illustrations, clear explanations and plenty of examples all help to demystify the Chinese language by deconstructing the Chinese characters and showing how they evolved from ancient pictographs and ideographs to their modern form. Each character is given a stroke-by-stroke breakdown of how it is to be written. Peng's Fun with Chinese Characters for Children is based on the highly popular Fun with Chinese Characters series.

CHILDREN

"A children's story that can only be enjoyed by children is not a good children's story in the slightest."

— C.S. Lewis

Little Godwit Finds His Wings

WRITTEN BY EMILY LIM-LEH, ILLUSTRATED BY JOHN LIM

36 pp, 255 x 210 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4841 17 7, S$12.95

Little Godwit hatches late and learns that his flock has left to escape the cold Arctic. Soon, he meets different birds who try to make him fit in with them. Little Godwit has to decide if he should stay with these birds or keep flying. How will he find his way?

Join Little Godwit on his epic journey across the world in this uplifting story about discovering one's strengths.

Little Mole's Awesome Star

WRITTEN BY EMILY LIM-LEH, ILLUSTRATED BY JOHN LIM

36 pp, 255 x 210 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 54 9, S$12.95

Little Mole is very eager to see his special star. Big Mole said it would point him to awesome things. The young mole goes in search of his star and finds it in the most unexpected place.

Join Little Mole on his journey to independence in this starry tale about discovering one's place in the world.

The Blue Sock

WRITTEN BY GILLIAN SPILLER, ILLUSTRATED BY JOHN LIM

36 pp, 255 x 210 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 00 6, S$12.95

Something terrible has happened in Louisa's sock drawer! One of the blue socks is all on its own. The old socks say that socks are only useful if they are in pairs. What will the blue sock do now?

Join the adventure as the socks try to find the missing blue sock and discover, to their surprise, that one is every bit as important as two.

Orange Porange

WRITTEN BY HOWARD PEARLSTEIN, ILLUSTRATED BY ROB HARDISON

28 pp, 250 x 250 mm, HB, ISBN 978 981 4868 93 8, S$12.95

All the colours make rhyming look so easy. But poor Orange can't find a rhyme for itself — no matter how hard it tries. Filled with clever rhymes and nonsense words, Orange Porange takes young readers on a rhyming adventure filled with ups and downs, and a valuable lesson about embracing our uniqueness.

CUSTOM PUBLISHING WITH MARSHALL CAVENDISH

OUR SERVICES

Marshall Cavendish provides comprehensive publishing solutions from initial conception all the way to print and delivery, ensuring your book is produced to the highest possible standard — on time and on budget. A dedicated in-house project manager will coordinate the process from start to finish, so you only need to be involved when you want to be.

Concept development

Our highly experienced team will work with you to develop the editorial and design concepts for your book, taking on board your objectives for publishing and your target audience. We will also suggest appropriate production specifications to complement your book's content to optimal effect. Mock-up designs will ensure the creative direction of the book is visualized at the earliest possible stage.

Manuscript and content creation

As a globally-renowned publisher, our author and contributor base is international. Wherever needed, we will suggest and commission suitable authors, photographers, illustrators, researchers and indexers of the highest standard.

Editing, design and layout

Our in-house editing and design team is comprised of experienced and talented creative minds who combine meticulous manuscript editing and proofreading with cutting-edge graphic design and layout. In our closely collaborative workflow, client feedback and corrections are welcomed during the proofing process.

Press-check, printing and delivery

We will source for the best printer for your project, weighing up the production considerations and cost factors. Colour proofs are closely checked before printing and we commit to having every project judiciously press-checked by a member of our team. Once printing is complete, we will arrange efficient delivery to your doorstep, even if international shipping is required.

Distribution

For appropriate titles, we will produce a 'trade edition' of your book, absorbing the warehousing, marketing and distribution costs, as well as the cost of extra printed copies. This trade edition will then be marketed and sold through our international distribution market to give clients maximum exposure and publicity.

Digital options

Finally, Marshall Cavendish has a constantly evolving e-book publishing programme and various e-publishing options are available for custom-published books.

COMPLETE, CREATIVE SOLUTIONS
