The Visitor from Far Far Away

Marshall Cavendish Children

When Big White the polar bear arrives at Heping Nature Park, he discovers that the environment is very different from his home in the Arctic. The dense jungle with leaves in all shades of green and brown, and the creatures in the water are all unfamiliar to him. Will the three friends, Red Hair the lion, Chip Ear the leopard and Four Tooth the hyena, be able to help Big White adapt to this new environment or find his way home?

Inspired by a famous saying by Confucius, 有朋自远方来, 不亦乐乎 (you peng zi yuan fang lai, bu yi le hu), this delightful story about the joys of friendship will enthral readers of all ages.

About this Book

The Visitor from Far Far Away is inspired by a famous saying by Confucius, 有朋自远方来, 不亦乐乎 (you peng zi yuan fang lai, bu yi le hu), which describes the great pleasure of welcoming friends visiting from afar.

In The Visitor from Far Far Away, Big White the polar bear arrives at Heping Nature Park in the tropics from his home in the Arctic and struggles to adapt to his new environment. He soon meets the three friends, Red Hair the lion, Chip Ear the leopard and Four Tooth the hyena who welcome him and take him on an adventure around the nature park.

Masterfully illustrated and filled with delightful surprises, The Visitor from Far Far Away teaches children about the joys of making new friends and helping friends in need. This enchanting story will delight readers of all ages.

A visitor arrived at Heping Nature Park
by sea one day.

He was Big White the polar bear.
He had come from the Arctic, far, far away.

The tall trees and green bushes were unfamiliar to Big White.

It's so hot here!
Where am I?

Big White's stomach was growling.
He was hungry after that long, long journey.

Ew! I can't eat this!
