

Jack loves Christmas and every year he dreams it will be white. But where Jack lives, Christmas is never white, so all he can do is dream.

One magical Christmas Eve, Jack's wish comes true! Except, he is all alone. When Jack's nose turns to ice and he can no longer feel his fingers, he marches back home determined to make Christmas right.

From the creators of Hello Goodbye Little Island comes a magical Christmas tale that will warm your heart, no matter what your Christmas looks like.

A Warm Christmas

Written by Leila Boukarim
Illustrated by Barbara Moxham

Jack loved Christmas.

All year he waited for it and every year,
he dreamed it would be white.

About the Author

Leila Boukarim was born in Lebanon, raised in several countries, and now lives in Singapore. Having spent a big chunk of her childhood in Montreal, she often finds herself dreaming of the white Christmases she grew to love all those years ago. Leila has learned, however, that a Christmas spent with the people who matter most is the best kind of Christmas, snow or no snow.

About the Illustrator

Barbara Moxham was born in winter in Munich and loves a snowy, white Christmas full of steaming mugs of hot chocolate, the smell of spicy cinnamon, and hot German Christmas cookies eaten straight from the oven. Growing up in Sydney and living in Singapore means her Christmases are now always warm, but that's because she's lucky enough to be surrounded by her loving family and friends.
